SIXTH FORM

General

When accepting a place in the Sixth Form at Queen's College the student accepts and agrees to abide by the rules for the wearing of uniform as outlined here and in the general rules for school uniform.

Uniform is to be worn throughout the school day unless the student is involved in an activity which precludes the wearing of such.

The emphasis on dress in the Sixth Form is essentially an executive style. The final decision as to whether the student's uniform is suitable lies with the Head of Sixth Form. Students who do not conform to the required standard may be asked to go home or back to the boarding house to change into more suitable attire.

A dark formal suit with or without waistcoat. (Waistcoats are not to be worn without a jacket).

A "colours" blazer with dark trousers (Ties must be worn at all times when wearing a blazer).

A Sixth Form or School-authorized tie worn with a formal classic shirt. (Shirts in bold colours or excessively patterned are not acceptable)

Shirts must be neatly tucked into the trousers at all times.
